

2011 Emergency Management Procurement Forum

Emergency Coordinators & Procurement Professionals of Localities, State Departments, Colleges and Universities of Virginia,

Announcing the 2011 Emergency Management Procurement Forum

Dear Emergency Management Professional,

The Virginia Department of Emergency Management would like to invite all Emergency and Procurement Personnel and Municipal Officials to the 2011 Emergency Management Procurement Forum being held in Richmond, VA, June 5 – 7, 2011.

The Forum will begin on Sunday, June 5th at the Virginia Emergency Operation Center (VEOC), where speakers will begin discussing the importance of emergencies particularly as they relate to your jurisdiction. The agenda will include the Virginia Interoperability Emergency Response (VIPER) system and WebEOC. The day will conclude with a tour of the Emergency Operation Center and the State's Interoperability Mobil Command Unit.

The Forum will continue at the Marriott Hotel, located at 500 East Broad Street, Richmond, VA 23219, on Monday and Tuesday, June 6th & 7th. Complimentary accommodations will be available at the same location. Forum attendance will require a $75.00 registration fee for first attendee and $25.00 for additional attendees. Checks should be made out to Emergency Management Procurement Forum. Registration fees are nonrefundable after April 26, 2011.

There are many benefits involved by attending the 2011 Emergency Management Procurement Forum. These include networking with up to 200 Emergency Management and Procurement Personnel and Exhibitors of emergency related products, and of course, an invitation to attend the gala event on Monday evening.

Complimentary breakfast and lunch will be served on Monday and Tuesday. Tuesday luncheon will be served festive style at food stations on the exhibitor floor, where exhibitors and sponsors will display their specialty equipment and offer information on their services.

The link below will provide you with information on the agenda, registration, accommodations, and will answer questions you may have.
